

The Georgia Department of Revenue has entered into an agreement with the companies listed below to offer free electronic filing services to qualified Georgia taxpayers. Under this agreement, taxpayers can file their Georgia personal income tax returns using approved software. Please read the information below or visit each company's web site to determine whether you meet their free electronic filing criteria.

The Georgia Department of Revenue neither endorses nor recommends any of these software companies.

NOTE: Some of the companies listed below may charge a fee for electronic preparation and/or filing of your federal return. We recommend that you read the information below carefully and visit the company's website to determine if the product you choose is totally free. Clicking a logo or link below will take you off of the Department of Revenue's website to a site maintained by the software provider.

Intuit Inc. and the Intuit Financial Freedom Foundation are proud to sponsor the Intuit Tax Freedom ProjectSM donating free TurboTax[®] returns to qualifying taxpayers who meet one of the following criteria:

- Qualify for the Earned Income Credit (EIC) for tax year 2006, or During calendar year 2006:
- Earned $28,500 or less in adjusted gross income (AGI), or
- Were active duty military (including Reservists and National Guard) with a military W2 and your AGI is $52,000 or less.

Qualified taxpayers can prepare and e-file their federal and state return online for FREE with our online tax preparation product. Filing with TurboTax is easy & accurate. TurboTax asks you easy-to-understand questions and places your answers onto IRS-approved forms. Then double-checks your return for errors and helps you maximize your refund by finding deductions and credits you may have overlooked. And when you e-file with TurboTax, you'll get your refund faster!
